Votaw-Johnson Wedding.

Walter Votaw, of Wellfleet and Miss Nancy Johnson, of Valparaiso, Ind., were married at the home of Mrs. P. A. Votaw on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. The ceremony was marked by its simplicity being witnessed by only the near relatives. Rev. W. S. Porter officiated using the ring service of the Methodist church. The bride wore a gown of gray velvet with trimmings of marabout and carried a huge bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bacon, of Cheyenne, were attendants.

After the ceremony a sumptuous three course supper was served and the bride and groom presented with many beautiful and costly gifts.

Mr. Votaw needs no introduction to our people having attended the local schools from which he graduated in 1906. Later he attended several colleges in the east and at present is employed as teacher in Wellfleet. He is bright, wellread, clean cut young man. The bride has resided in and near this city for several years and is very popular with all who know her. She also has taught rural schools, giving excellent satisfaction. Of a cheerful, sunny disposition she makes and holds the friendship of many.

Mr. and Mrs. Votaw will reside in the cozy home which the groom has in readiness.

North Platte Defeats York.

The game between York and North Platte at York yesterday was of the swift nature except, when North Platte was wrangling with officials. The Platte boys played York off their feet right from the start. A touchdown was made on a fumble but was not allowed by the referees, the latter claiming the ball passed over the line on the fly. The game was featured by long runs on the part of North Platte and a few brilliant forward passes by York.

The stars on the local team were Lincoln and Norris. After having been robbed off two touch downs the score stood 27 to 15 in favor of N. P. H. S.
